'But Is It Art?'

Online Lecture

8:00pm start

Visitors welcome

Dr Keith Snell

LRPS EFIAP EPSA

Keith explores the controversy over photography being a true art form by looking at ways in which a photograph can be more than just a record of what the lens is pointing at. The approaches might still involve a representational interpretation of the subject, but he also looks at the more creative techniques of Intentional Camera Movement and In-camera Multiple Exposure.
